The Wisconsin Difference

Since 1945, the Graduate School of Banking at the University of Wisconsin-Madison has been a trusted resource for bankers to deepen their expertise and better serve their community. Set on the beautiful lakeshores in Madison, the GSB-Wisconsin experience is about more than just a classroom, it's an investment in the skills you need for the road ahead.

Our program is built on hands-on learning. Through our proprietary interactive bank simulation—FiSim—and intersession projects you can apply directly to your daily work, you'll tackle the real-world challenges facing Oklahoma banks today. You'll learn from banking instructors who understand the industry from the inside out and bring practical, solutions to every session.

With an alumni network over 23,000 strong, GSB-Wisconsin a life-long resource. Beyond the curriculum, you will build a reliable network of peers from across the country. This diverse community becomes a personal sounding board, providing you with professional connections and friendships that will pay dividends for years to come. It's an opportunity to step away from the daily routine and return with a broader perspective and a stronger toolkit.

In recognition of your leadership, program graduates also earn a Certificate of Executive Leadership from the Wisconsin School of Business Center for Professional and Executive Development—a respected credential that marks your commitment to growth and leadership.

Invest in a national standard of excellence. Experience GSB-Wisconsin.
