Fraud Smart Virtual Series

April 14, 2026
May 13, 2026

June 10, 2026
July 22, 2026

ADDITIONAL HIGHLIGHTS

Tellers/CSR's

- Check, deposit, and withdrawal fraud red flags (e.g., signature mismatches, suspicious IDs).
- Face-to-face customer interactions—how to question suspicious transactions and how to escalate concerns.
- Reinforce the need to follow procedures for unusual cash activity or requests out of pattern.

Phone Based Social Engineering

- Emphasizing phone-based social engineering, account takeover attempts, and voice phishing tactics.
- Scripts for handling verification, red flag checklists for suspicious calls, and escalation steps when fraud is suspected.
- Training staff to slow down calls, verify identities, and report incidents without fear of undermining customer satisfaction.

Managers

- Fostering a fraud-aware culture, leading by example, and ensuring compliance utilizing OODA and situational awareness skills.
- Cover oversight of red flag reporting, managing incident response, and supporting employee training.
- Equip managers with analytical tools to review reports, assess trends, and reinforce accountability.

By customizing each module, all bank staff learn core fraud concepts, but also acquire actionable, job-relevant skills that make prevention a daily practice.

WHY?

Provides a scalable, progressive training path adaptable to staff at all levels.

- Reinforces customer trust by equipping frontline and back-office staff with practical fraud-prevention skills.
- Supports state banking associations in promoting industry-wide fraud awareness and resilience.

Each fraud training module is tailored to your state and focused on tellers/CSR's, call center representatives, and managers involved in fraud mitigation by focusing on the specific fraud risks, daily activities, and escalation responsibilities typical for each role.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

This session is designed for all bank staff who needs a better understanding of core fraud concepts, but also acquire actionable, job-relevant skills that make prevention a daily practice. This new series of four programs equips banking staff at any level with essential fraud prevention skills.
