News Release

Becker Named Leader in Banking Excellence

For immediate release
July 6, 2021

David B. Becker, chairman and CEO of First Internet Bancorp and its subsidiary, First Internet Bank of Indiana, is being honored by the Indiana Bankers Association with the IBA Leaders in Banking Excellence award, to be presented on Aug. 16 at the IBA Annual Convention in French Lick. This award celebrates exceptional leaders who have positively impacted Indiana banks and communities. Six other members of the Indiana banking community are being inducted into the class of 2021 leaders.

At the upcoming awards event, Indiana dignitaries will be making presentations, and award recipients will have the opportunity to offer comments. Each honoree will be presented with an ebony plaque etched with a portrait and biography. Identical crystal plaques will be on permanent display at the IBA offices in Indianapolis.

The Leaders in Banking Excellence awards are the Association's highest honor. For more information about the awards, visit indiana.bank/leaders-banking-excellence.

Biography:

David B. Becker is chairman and CEO of First Internet Bancorp and its subsidiary, First Internet Bank of Indiana, Fishers. He founded the bank in 1999, and it became the first state-chartered FDIC-insured institution to operate exclusively online.
