PRESS RELEASE

Van Til Named President and CEO of the Indiana Bankers Association

For Immediate Release: Jan. 3, 2017

Amber R. (Moore) Van Til, JD, has been named president and chief executive officer of the Indiana Bankers Association (IBA), effective Jan 1. She previously had been serving as president since March 31, 2016, when she was named successor to S. Joe DeHaven, prior president and CEO; DeHaven retired from the Association on Dec. 31, 2016.

This leadership transition makes Van Til the first female president and chief executive officer of the IBA in the organization's 120-year history. Also effective Jan. 1, Annette M. Russell, Security Federal Savings Bank, Logansport, has taken office as the first woman to chair the IBA board of directors.

Van Til joined the Association in 2002 as a lobbyist and has served as vice president-government relations, as senior vice president-government relations, as executive vice president and as president. She was honored in 2015 as Association Professional of the Year by the Indiana Society of Association Executives, and in 2008 she won in the category of Banking & Financial Services for the Best & Brightest awards, sponsored by Junior Achievement of Central Indiana Inc.

A graduate of the University of Indianapolis and of the Indiana University Robert H. McKinney School of Law, Van Til has completed the Graduate School of Banking at the University of Wisconsin (UW) and earned the prestigious certificate of executive leadership from the UW Wisconsin School of Business. She serves on the board of directors of the Indiana Statewide Certified Development Corp. and is a member of the Governmental Affairs Society of Indiana, The Columbia Club and the Indiana Society of Association Executives.

A native of Martinsville, Indiana, Van Til resides in Greenwood.
