PRESS RELEASE

Indiana Bankers Association Wins Statewide Award

For Immediate Release: Dec. 13, 2016

The Indiana Bankers Association (IBA) has been honored with the 2016 Outstanding Magazine award of excellence from the Indiana Society of Association Executives for Hoosier Banker magazine, IBA's flagship publication. The award, in the category of organizations with budgets over $750,000, was presented at a "STAR Awards" gala on Dec. 8. Hoosier Banker has been celebrating its 100th anniversary throughout 2016, highlighting decades of Indiana banking history in each issue.

Hoosier Banker currently is published by S. Joe DeHaven, IBA's chief executive officer. Additional IBA support is provided by editor Laura Wilson, vice president-communications; advertising representative Rod Lasley, vice president-products & services; and editorial assistant Joshua A. Myers, government relations & communications office manager. In 2017 the publisher's title will be conferred to IBA President Amber R. Van Til, who is to be named IBA president and CEO effective Jan. 1, 2017, upon DeHaven's retirement.

Available both in print and online, Hoosier Banker is designed, printed and digitally prepared by The Westcott Group Inc., Indianapolis.
